3 CPD seminars: see below for details

SEMINAR 1

The Specification and Design Considerations of Stair Edgings

- Updated for 2013, this seminar features videos of leading experts from professional bodies
- The experts discuss slip-resistance, risk of overstep and visual contrast and all the latest guidelines and legislations are covered to ensure the optimum specification can be made
- Learn about a range of stair edgings that considerably reduce the risk of slips and trips on stairs in line with the latest research from BRE.

The Specification and Design Considerations of Barrier Matting Systems

- This seminar provides the specifier with the information necessary to make informed decisions
- It concentrates on the main factors for specifying barrier matting for an optimum specification, including the latest legislation and guidelines
- It also looks at a study conducted by the Health and Safety Laboratory and Entrance Flooring Systems Association on pedestrian flow rates and how to quantify water removal.

SEMINAR 3

The Specification and Design Considerations of Wall, Corner and Door Protection Systems

- Learn how wall protection systems can be used to reduce maintenance costs and maintain the aesthetics of a building
- Details information on all the latest guidelines, the different options available and how they can be most effectively used.

LEARNING AIMS

The seminars provide information to simplify the specification process and clarify current legislative guidelines.

ALSO AVAILABLE

- Seminar back up packs (including slides, commentary and current legislation)
- Product literature in hard copy or on the Gradus website.
